Worksheet 6: SMART (short-term) Goals

SMART goals are Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Rewarding and Timed statements of what is to be done en route to the accomplishment of a DRIVE (long-term) goal.

DRIVE goal to be realized: ________________________________

SMART Goals:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________